PUSH2PODIUM

FREE entry and open to all

Have you been inspired by the incredible success of British wheelchair tennis players recently?

Do you want to be the next Alfie Hewett, Andy Lapthorne or Lucy Shuker? Or maybe you want to get involved in wheelchair tennis to meet new people, improve your fitness or just to have fun? The festivals are open to anyone of any age or ability and they are absolutely FREE.

Festival	Venue	Date	Time
South Wales	Newport Tennis Centre	16-Sep	14:00-18:00
Taunton	Taunton Tennis Club	17-Sep	11:00-16:00
Portsmouth	Portsmouth Tennis Centre	30-Sep	12:00-16:00
Ipswich	Ipswich Sports Club	01-Oct	12:30-15:30
Preston	South Ribble	01-Oct	13:00-17:00
Sunderland	Silksworth Community Pool, Tennis & Wellness Centre	14-Oct	10:00-12:00
Oxford	White Horse Leisure & Tennis Centre	04-Nov	12:00-16:00
Loughborough	Loughborough University	04-Nov	14:00-17:00
London	Lee Valley	12-Nov	12:00-16:00
Glasgow	Scotstoun Leisure Centre	25-Nov	10:00-14:00

All equipment will be provided and a Talent ID coach will be at each festival. If you are new to the sport you will be signposted to your nearest sessions if you want to continue playing. If you catch the eye of one of the Talent ID coaches you may be invited on to the Tennis Foundation's Wheelchair Tennis Development Squad, the first step to becoming an elite player.

To start your wheelchair tennis journey visit the Tennis Foundation website and book a onto free festival near you.
